Welcome

A few words from Marketing

Welcome to the seventh edition of our Tales off the Tee Magazine. It has once again been 12 months (due to COVID-19) since our last publication and I'm excited that we are trading as normal and able to bring new and exciting promotions to you, with a business as usual approach. COVID-19 has majorly impacted Club Operations since 2020, persevering through two Club closures, which meant that we were unable to deliver many of the fantastic events and promotions we had planned. With a new year, and major COVID-19 restrictions behind us, we would like to welcome everyone back to their local Club and get back to enjoying Club life. By welcoming new activities and a sense of normality to our venue, I look forward to continually keeping you informed on what's to come!

This Magazine edition will run over 4 months, introducing upcoming Club activities (pg 8) – Wednesday $1000 GTD APL Poker, Meat Raffles, JACKPOT Draw and Thursday Trivia. Nottingham 65 Specials (pg 11) – Pizza and Pasta Night, NEW Seasonal menu, NEW Take away menu and a NEW Halfway House Menu. Club Events - Mother's Day and our Easter Family Fun Day.

The Easter Bunny will be hopping into town before you know it! Our Easter Raffles & MEGA Easter Thursday Seafood Raffle are on their way. A chance to WIN your share of $4000 in prizes before Easter (pg 6). We highly recommend making a booking for Easter Thursday, simply by phoning 9649 6255.

Our Easter Family Fun Day, held Saturday 9th April, is a great opportunity to bring the Kids & Grandkids down to Carnarvon for a Fun Day of bonding and activities (pg 7).

Further into the magazine we will introduce a new staff member. This staff member works tirelessly behind the scenes and what better way to introduce them (pg 13).

Our annual Junior Masters Tournament has been rescheduled to a NEW date, Monday 11 July and we anticipate a great turn out of Juniors for this Event. The entry fee for Carnarvon Juniors is waived. If you know a Junior interested in local Tournaments, visit our website to download and entry form or find out more on pg 15.

One of our many sponsors, [yellow tail] wines, are offering some fantastic promotions from March! Your chance to enjoy your very own backyard sizzle, with an Everdure BBQ by Heston Blumenthal, picnic chairs and a basket filled with goodies valued at over $400*. (see more pg 12). Also, with any purchase of Peter Lehmann Variety Wines, receive a complimentary sleeve of limited edition Bridgestone golf balls. A fantastic promotion for all you golf enthusiasts. (pg 8). Monthly wine specials also starting from March.

Carnarvon is seeking volunteers for our Course Habitat Planting Day! In partnership with Greater Sydney Landcare Network and Parramatta River Catchment Group, native ecosystems are being brought back to our neighbourhood. We're planting trees and shrubs to provide a home for small birds and pollinators, to extend our local habitat corridor. Scan the QR code on pg 13 to register as a volunteer and to see the measures we are taking to improve our greenspace!

The NRL Season is almost underway, with registrations for our NRL Tipping Competition open until 8 March. We look forward to some great banter and friendly competition once again.

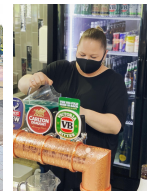

Carnarvon would also like to welcome back our Croatian guests from the Punchbowl Club. Every Friday evening, we host live music and dancing in our Function room. Come on down and make a night of it, by enjoying dinner, a few drinks and a fun night out!

I would be remiss if I didn't thank everyone from the local community that supported our Take-away Drive-Thru service that operated during our most recent lockdown. We served "Heat & Eat" food items, Growlers for take away tap beer, "locktails" and other specials. Growlers and "locktails" are still available, simply enquire at our main bar or view our take away menu. Below are a few photos of the local community showing their support during this time.

Our Social media and online presence has increased and has been key in keeping everyone informed, especially over the last year. This is a modernised way of engaging members and getting information and event updates to you quickly! Some new upcoming events, not featured in this magazine will be shared via these online platforms, so be sure to download the Carnarvon app, Like & Follow our Social media pages to stay current on all things Carnarvon. Our Social media handles can be found on the back page.

For now, enjoy our long awaited seventh edition of our Magazine, and if you happen to see me around the Club or Golf Course, be sure to say Hi!

Danielle Trevena, Golf Administrator & Marketing

Carnarvon Events Centre 2022

After a very hard year in 2021, with ongoing Covid 19 restrictions in regards to the Clubhouse and functions, I am looking forward to welcoming 2022 and the events it will bring.

2022 is a time to celebrate all the events that may have been missed in 2021. From Birthdays, Christenings, Engagements, Weddings, Golf Days and everything in between. We have function spaces to suit large and small events all of which boast superb views of the golf course.

We will be introducing a new function menu this year with our head chef working hard to ensure that we have a wider variety of options to suit every taste and budget.

All events booked must follow the Covid Restrictions imposed at the time of the event.

So if you are planning a special event or just a simple gathering of family this year and are looking for a venue which offers superb food and outstanding service, look no further than your own club.
